Call for Juried Paper Proposals

Deadline for paper proposal submissions (max. 1,000 words): July 15, 2015
Notification of acceptance: September 15, 2015

This call for juried paper proposals seeks original contributions including reports of research, theory, pedagogy, best practices, think pieces, and critical essays that contribute to elaboration of the conference theme of "Radical Change: Inclusion and Innovation." The conference welcomes contributions that explore inclusive practices and innovative strategies and the Radical Change being experienced in teaching and research, with special interest for Cultural Diversity, Digital Societies, Intellectual Freedom, Social Justice and International Resources.

Submissions should be original, not for papers that have been previously published. There are no restrictions on research methodology. Alternative perspectives, creative and non-conventional responses to library and information science education concerns within the context of inquiry supporting teaching, research and professional practice are welcomed and encouraged!

Submission Requirements

Submission format and requirements will be announced on the ALISE 2016 website during Spring 2015.

Please note: submitting a proposal constitutes your permission for ALISE to publish brief and extended abstracts in the conference program and on the ALISE website, if your proposal is accepted.

Evaluation Criteria

Abstracts will be evaluated by the Juried Paper Proposal Committee according to the following criteria:

- Connection to conference theme
- Relevance to current and emerging issues in LIS education
- Originality of ideas
- Potential impact/significance
- Select references to relevant literature
- Overall quality of writing

Deadline for submissions is July 15, 2015.

Applicants will be informed of the Committee's decisions by September 15, 2015. Conference presentation time slots will be published online and in the conference program. All presenters are required to register for the ALISE 2016 conference.

Please note: Juried paper proposals accepted for presentation at the conference which are developed into full papers, may be submitted to JELIS for consideration for publication.
