

Call for Juried Paper Proposals

Deadline for paper proposal submissions (max. 1,000 words): July 15, 2015
Notification of acceptance: September 15, 2015

This call for juried paper proposals seeks original contributions including reports of research, theory, pedagogy, best practices, think pieces, and critical essays that contribute to elaboration of the conference theme of “Radical Change: Inclusion and Innovation.” The conference welcomes contributions that explore inclusive practices and innovative strategies and the Radical Change being experienced in teaching and research, with special interest for Cultural Diversity, Digital Societies, Intellectual Freedom, Social Justice and International Resources.

Submissions should be original, not for papers that have been previously published. There are no restrictions on research methodology. Alternative perspectives, creative and non-conventional responses to library and information science education concerns within the context of inquiry supporting teaching, research and professional practice are welcomed and encouraged!

Submission Requirements/Instructions

All submissions must be entered into the ALISE 2016 Submission System at www.conftool.pro/alise2016. First-time users will be required to register and create an account.

When making a submission, be prepared to provide the following information:

- Type of Submission (Juried Paper, Juried Panel, SIG Submission, Works in Progress Poster, Doctoral Student Poster)
- First and Last (Family) name of all authors
- Email address for all authors

- Institution/Organization name of each author
- Title of Paper
- 1000-word full abstract (this can be copied and pasted into the system using a WYSIWYG editor)
- Short abstract (50-100 word summary of the work for potential use on website and in conference publications)
- Keyword(s)

Please complete page 1 of the submission form, then click on “Proceed” in the lower left corner. On page 2 of the submission form, you will be able to review what you entered on the previous page and can upload a file containing your contribution (this is optional and uploading a file will not increase or decrease chances of acceptance). If you are satisfied with your submission, please click on “Upload File (optional) and Complete Submission.” If you wish to save your work and add a file later, click on “Save Submission.”

Please note: submitting a proposal constitutes your permission for ALISE to publish brief and extended abstracts in the conference program and on the ALISE website, if your proposal is accepted.

Evaluation Criteria

Abstracts will be evaluated by the Juried Paper Proposal Committee according to the following criteria:

- Connection to conference theme
- Relevance to current and emerging issues in LIS education
- Originality of ideas
- Potential impact/significance
- Select references to relevant literature
- Overall quality of writing

Deadline for submissions is July 15, 2015.

Applicants will be informed of the Committee’s decisions by September 15, 2015. Conference presentation time slots will be published online and in the conference program. All presenters are required to register for the ALISE 2016 conference.

Please note: Juried paper proposals accepted for presentation at the conference which are developed into full papers, may be submitted to JELIS for consideration for publication.
