

ALISE Award for Teaching Excellence in the Field of Library and Information Science Education

Selection of the Awardee: ALISE Awards and Honors Committee members shall carefully review the nomination package for each nominee and evaluate it category by category using the weights established.

Committee members shall submit in writing each nominee's score, category by category, to the Chair of the ALISE Awards and Honors Committee.

CANDIDATE:

Points	Criteria
_____	Evidence of regular and sustained excellence in teaching library and information science (up to 40 points)
_____	Contributions to curriculum design which demonstrate subject expertise and the ability to integrate new developments in library and information science (up to 20 points)
_____	Evidence of mentoring students, alumni, and/or practicing professionals outside the classroom (up to 20 points)
_____	Use of effective and innovative teaching methods (up to 20 points)
_____	TOTAL SCORE

Comments:

Signed:

Date:

Mail to Chair