

Consent Form for Oral History Interview for ALISE Centennial Celebration, 2014 Version
(Adapted from the MLA Oral History Committee Consent Form, 2002 Version)

This confirms my understanding and agreement with the Association for Library and Information Science Education (ALISE) concerning my participation in an oral history interview as a part of ALISE's Centennial Celebration Project.

1. I agree to be interviewed by _____ on _____ . I understand that my interview will be recorded and that a transcript and edited version of my interview may later be created. I understand that I will be given an opportunity to review and edit the edited transcript before its release.

2. I hereby grant and assign all rights, title, and interest to any and all recordings of my interview including copyright [and all rights subsumed thereunder] to ALISE. I understand that the transfer of these rights to ALISE confers no obligations on ALISE to promote, market, or otherwise make publicly available copies of the interview.

3. One or more edited and/or condensed versions of the interview, approved by me, may be disseminated by ALISE, as it deems appropriate.

4. I understand that the original, unedited recording of my interview will be maintained in the ALISE archives at the _____, or at such other place as ALISE may reasonably designate, and may be made available to researchers who have demonstrated that they have appropriate qualifications. I further understand that the original unedited recording will be made available with the following restrictions (Check one):
