

ALISE 2020 AWARD SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

ABOUT ALISE

ALISE (Association for Library and Information Science Education) is a non-profit organization that serves as the intellectual home of university faculty in graduate programs in library and information science. Its mission is to promote innovation and excellence in research, teaching, and service for educators and scholars in Library and Information Science and cognate disciplines internationally through leadership, collaboration, advocacy, and dissemination of research.

ABOUT ALISE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The ALISE 2020 Annual Conference is October 20-23, 2020 in Pittsburgh, PA. Library and information science (LIS) education continues to be transformed by technological advances, international trends, and expanded interconnectedness, both local and global. "Change" has become a buzzword but also a constant reality. Our social settings, educational environments, and workplaces are fluid and fast-paced. In an era shaped by the continuing evolution of the information landscape, ALISE '20 will focus on the challenges and opportunities these transformations present to LIS educators in terms of institutional narratives, sustainability, and the positioning of LIS as an increasingly interdisciplinary field.

CO-CHAIRS:

Keren Dali, University of Denver

Suliman Hawamdeh, University of North Texas

AUDIENCE PROFILE:

ALISE members are primarily university faculty, administrators, and students. They teach in a wide range of areas, from serving children in libraries to corporate database management. They need tools and services to support their teaching and research, as well as tools to streamline the academic workflow.

- ALISE has members from around the globe.
- Our members are well-educated and tech-savvy professionals—leaders in the library and information science education profession.
- They rely on ALISE to keep up with professional trends, maintain professional contacts, and help make purchasing decisions.
- Our members not only make purchasing decisions for their own universities, but they touch every librarian and many other information professionals who enter the work force, thus influencing their vendor knowledge.
- From deans to faculty, administrators to doctoral students, your message will reach select, qualified library and information science educators.
- 70% female, 30% male
