

ALISE 2019 AWARD SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

ABOUT ALISE

ALISE (Association for Library and Information Science Education) is a non-profit organization that serves as the intellectual home of university faculty in graduate programs in library and information science. Its mission is to promote innovation and excellence in research, teaching, and service for educators and scholars in Library and Information Science and cognate disciplines internationally through leadership, collaboration, advocacy, and dissemination of research.

AUDIENCE PROFILE:

ALISE members are primarily university faculty, administrators, and students. They teach in a wide range of areas, from serving children in libraries to corporate database management. They need tools and services to support their teaching and research, as well as tools to streamline the academic workflow.

- ALISE has members from around the globe.
- Our members are well-educated and tech-savvy professionals—leaders in the library and information science education profession.
- They rely on ALISE to keep up with professional trends, maintain professional contacts, and help make purchasing decisions.
- Our members not only make purchasing decisions for their own universities, but they touch every librarian and many other information professionals who enter the work force, thus influencing their vendor knowledge.
- From deans to faculty, administrators to doctoral students, your message will reach select, qualified library and information science educators.
- 70% female, 30% male

SPONSORSHIP AVAILABLE: ALISE/NORMAN HORROCKS LEADERSHIP AWARD

$500

First awarded in 2009, the award, which includes $500 cash, recognizes a new ALISE member who has demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities in professional ALISE activities. This award addresses a number of concerns relevant to the Association, including:

- The need to attract new members and retain their membership as a lifelong commitment.
- The need to develop and recognize those new members with outstanding leadership qualities as future leaders of ALISE at the highest levels.
- The need to recognize newer members for service to the organization rather than limiting recognition to academic achievements.

The sponsorship includes:

- Recognition as the award sponsor with your name and logo included in the conference program and in the mobile app
- Recognition as the award sponsor on signage at the annual conference
- One minute at the podium to welcome guests prior to the award presentation
- Logo and link on award website

SPONSORSHIP AVAILABLE: ALISE COMMUNITY CONN@CT MINI-GRANTS

$750

The ALISE Community conn@CT began as a space at the 2015 ALISE Conference and centennial celebration, for ALISE members to connect with social justice organizations and each other to create and innovate solutions to advance their mission. The need to attract new members and retain their membership as a lifelong commitment.

A competitive mini-grant program was designed to advance the ALISE Community conn@CT initiative. The ALISE Community conn@CT mini-grants ($750) support ALISE members to address a library and information need of a social justice organization through community engagement (in a collaborative manner). Multiple sponsorships are available.

The sponsorship includes:

- Recognition as the award sponsor with your name and logo included in the conference program and in the mobile app
- Recognition as an award sponsor on signage at the annual conference
- Recognition as a sponsor on award website

ALISE ANNUAL CONFERENCE AWARDS

ALISE provides four awards for the annual conference:

- ALISE Diversity Travel Award to the ALISE Annual Conference
- ALISE /Jean Tague Sutcliffe Doctoral Student Research Poster Competition
- ALISE/University of Washington Information School Youth Services Graduate Student Travel Award
- Doctoral Students to ALISE Grant
